MARINELLO SCHOOLS OF BEAUTY PAMPERS CANCER SURVIVORS

WHITTIER, CA — Marinello Schools of Beauty, the West Coast’s leading chain of beauty schools, will participate in national Cancer Survivor Beauty & Support Day. On Tuesday, December 1st, Marinello will join with other salons, spas and beauty schools to offer complimentary pampering to cancer survivors nationwide. Cancer survivors can drop by or make an appointment at any Marinello Schools of Beauty campus and enjoy a manicure and/or wig styling free.

Marinello Schools of Beauty is committed to making the world a more beautiful place from the inside out. Students and faculty know first-hand the difference a beauty service can make to the self-esteem of a client, so they are especially thrilled to put their skills to work for this worthy cause.

“As part of the Marinello experience, students actively give back to the community, learning valuable lessons in personal and professional fulfillment,” commented Dr. Nagui Elyas, President and COO of Marinello Schools of Beauty. “On this special day, we feel privileged to be able to provide support and beauty to women, men and children who have courageously fought their battle with cancer,” he added.

“The real beauty of the day is the support that it gives to cancer survivors,” said Barbara Paget, Founding Chairman of the Cancer Survivor Beauty and Support Day. There are more than 10.1 million cancer survivors in the United States and more than 1.3 million new cancer cases are expected to be diagnosed this year. While many public health initiatives address early detection, prevention and control of cancer, public health efforts to address cancer survivorship are relatively new.
